Come and say 'Hello' and tell us your thoughts.

It's YOUR community newsletter and we'd like to know what you want to see in it and what you think of the content so far.

Do you think our town is insular, parochial, lacking in imagination, those in authority too chummy, where no one rocks the boat?

In which areas can our town be improved? Are your priorities reflected in the newsletter at the moment?

We look forward to meeting you, particularly those who would prefer to see the W'by News at £1.90 as the only game in town.

Any budding journalists out there? There's plenty of stories if you look for them. Help us to help your community.

You're having a laff!

Peter Kay One-liners

Went to a café that serves 'breakfast at any time'. So I ordered croissants during the French Revolution.

A cement mixer collided with a prison van on the A1. Five escaped and police are looking for the hardened criminals.

Mountains are so funny - hill areas in fact!

Michael Ball's Quiz on BBC Radio 2:

"Which World Championship is being played at the Crucible theatre in Sheffield this week?"

Contestant: "Rugby"

Warning to Vehicle Owners

The owners of Riverside Court are putting 24 hours a day, 7 days a week CCTV surveillance on their parking spaces. It's where the buses leave the bus station. From 18 May you will be fined if you don't have a permit. This will affect those who temporarily use them to pick up pizzas from Moji's. This in turn may make the already bad situation worse for buses being blocked by pizzeria-visiting vehicles. Let's hope it does not affect the two charity shops adversely for cars dropping off donations.

Wetherby's Wonderful Wildlife

A curlew was seen near the racecourse recently. If you have some excellent photos of our wildlife, please send them to us, so that those without access to social media can enjoy them in print.

Comparisons with Otley - Part 1

Promoting Our Town

Otley is a similarly sized town to Wetherby, and both have the attractive asset of the River Wharfe.

There are many differences that we have noticed in favour of Otley. We will highlight these in the hope that Wetherby organisations will make an effort to improve their standards in many areas.

Marketing Literature. Not only does Otley have a greater number of leaflets, they are better quality. Visit Otley have produced 7 leaflets, all with high quality maps in. Welcome to Wetherby have produced one leaflet with a poor map inside.

Otley Library Prominent Display

Otley has leaflets promoting its shops, riverside, history & heritage, walking and famous son, Thomas Chippendale.

Visit Otley has the phrase 'Make a Day of it' next to their town logo. They clearly want to attract visitors from outside the town to come and spend money in their shops and enjoy the surrounding countryside.

In summary, their literature is of a professional quality, whilst ours is not the same standard. Otley's leaflets are prominently displayed in their large and modern library, see left. (More on library comparison in future issue).

We think we deserve better. There's no reason why we can't emulate Otley. We look forward to a response from Welcome to Wetherby's Chair, Cllr Victor Hawkins.

All literature can be seen at 'Meet The Editor'

The Alec Shelbrooke Page

Alec.shelbrooke.mp
@parliament.uk

Alec Shelbrooke, 46, has been our Conservative MP for more than 10 years. His basic salary is £84K (£2,200 rise in Apr '22) In the last election in 2019 he got 58% of our vote beating Labour by over 17,000 votes. He was a Remainer. From Dec '19 to Nov '21 he has voted 357 times (out of 392) and has never rebelled against his party whip

Space on this page for Alec to tell readers anything he wants, unedited. Nothing sent since we began in Sep 2021

Alec's Recent Tweets. He has 16,000+ followers - No Non-Political Tweets specifically about Wetherby since 12 March

27 April to 2 May - 4 Retweets about NATO in USA, see right
3 May - Tweets about Ukraine promoting Johnson's leadership
Two Retweets from Health Secretary about NHS

Retweets from Conservative Central Office about Ukraine, Terrorism, Policing, a Skills Act .....

4 May - Retweet promoting a local councillor

5 May Polling Day - Tweets to Vote Conservative 'for lower council tax and better services'

6 May - Congratulates winning local Tory cllrs

10 May - More travelling for Alec, this time in Riga, Latvia on NATO duty

Alec does not respond to praise, criticism or anything in the comments underneath his Tweets.

We noticed a flourish of Retweeting from Central Office just before the local elections on 5 May.

We asked in the last issue who Alec thinks is responsible for women being 'let down every day by the NHS' when his party have been in power for over 10 years. We have received no answer.

Cllr Norma Harrington was re-elected to Leeds City Council with a 946 majority. See page 3 for full results.

Penny Stables of the Green Party came second beating 3rd place by 1690 votes. Leeds City Council is still run by Labour. It seems that Labour & the Lib Dems have given up on Wetherby - no leaflets, visits or signs on lamp-posts; no visibility at all. This shows a lack of interest in Wetherby and is not good for democracy. We should know about all the choices.

Leeds City Councillors receive at least £16,500 and 45p per mile minimum for using their car.

If you want to send an Freedom of Information request to the City Council, the email address is DPF01@leeds.gov.uk

Conservative Cllr Neil O'Byrne - No Answers

Cllr O'Byrne is another of the Town Councillors who has decided not to answer reasonable and legitimate questions.

His Reason: "On reflection, I have decided not to answer your questions as they do not provide for an accurate reflection of the voluntary nature of the role of a Town Councillor."

We think this means that he does it for free so he isn't going to tell us. How can we know what is involved in being a councillor, how much work they actually do and their views on issues, like being a 'non-political' council, if they refuse to answer these simple questions?

Cllr O'Byrne will not inform us of any of these facts:

- * how long he's been a councillor
- * how many phone calls or emails from constituents he receives
- * what role he thinks party politics play in Wetherby Town Council (WTC)
- * if he has any specific plans for improving Wetherby before the next council elections
- * whether he will run at the next election as an Independent, if WTC is non-political
- * how many visits to constituents he makes or receives
- * how many hours he spends on council duties per month
- * his areas of specific interest
- * his achievements / difficult case where he helped a resident
- * his frustrations and joys of being a Town Councillor

There is no biography for Cllr O'Byrne on the Town Council website, like there is for some other councillors.

His Register of Interests says that he has been Mayor since May 2020 and is a Governor of the High School. As Mayor, he can if he wishes claim £560 a year.

We cannot guarantee that any of this information is true or up-to-date. Their website has always been a low priority yet it is the main way we, the residents, can find out what is going on and make them accountable for what they do. Example on right.

Why is it so difficult for the Town Council to update the website? Cllrs, not staff, are ultimately responsible and should make it a priority.

General Town Council meetings are monthly (2nd Tues)

The last meeting was on 10 May. No Minutes for April meeting were available before the May meeting.

Local Man makes GB Climbing Team

Sam Butterworth of Boston Spa has been successful in his ambition to make the GB Senior Climbing team.

He has been devoted to the sport for years, starting in Harrogate when he was a young boy. In his late teens he had to juggle his commitment to climbing and passing exams at Ashville College in Harrogate. The pandemic and lockdowns made things even more difficult.

This latest success brings Sam the chance to climb in Slovakia, Slovenia, Italy and France at two European and two Worlds Cups. He says "After so long training to get onto the GB team, I can't wait to compete internationally." With his eyes on the Los Angeles Olympics in 2028 Sam has huge goals. His tenacity over 13 years has helped him to get to this point.

Sam training

Sam started University in Leeds last September and soon realised that the necessary hours of training and his Engineering degree were not going to mix. So with his university plans on hold he is now fully focussed on climbing as a career. His days are now spent earning money to live whilst training 8 hours a day. But he's grateful that this year will bring him the much needed international climbing experience to take him to the next level.

Sam is an inspiration to young people and has shown that you really can chase your dreams if you develop resilience and make the necessary sacrifices. Even during Covid lockdowns he built and trained on a makeshift wall in his garden and garage at home. His lifestyle is frugal, super healthy and disciplined. The sacrifices made by him, as with all athletes, shows what can be done when you strive to shine.

Climbing is not a nationally-funded sport so his next steps to success are dependent on a few good people getting behind him. Finding sponsors to help with the cost of travel and accommodation is now a top priority for Sam. If you would like to support him and sponsor his endeavours, he would be very grateful. He can be contacted at:

Police: NO COMMENT

"Figures reveal three-quarters of West Yorkshire theft cases were closed without police identifying a suspect last year".

"Special constable handed suspended sentence over child abuse images"

Headlines like this on 4 & 5 May do not inspire confidence in Chief Constable Robins Nor does it help when they, along with Insp Richard Horn, seem to be ignoring our requests for comments and refusing to address issues we raise on your behalf.

In the last issue we asked 'Is Wetherby being ignored?'. We gave one example of a serious local incident which wasn't publicised. We showed that Wetherby rarely features on their Twitter feed too, yet they think it's important to tell us about sheep.

Mayor: NO OPINION

Tracy Brabin, Labour Mayor of West Yorkshire, would provide us with no opinion on the differences of style between John Robins & Northants Chief Constable highlighted in Issue 17. It is an 'operational matter', she said. Of course it is, but there was no interest shown in discussing with John Robins how the force can use social media to improve communication. All we got was a defensive, unhelpful statement. And she addressed an issue we did not raise! (inappropriate tweets). We are wondering what the point of her role is. Tracy's priorities are clear to see on her Twitter feed, take a look at @MayorOfWY.

Nothing will change unless people make their voice heard.

People criticise the Police on social media but they (understandably) do not respond, and may not even see the posts. To take positive action and put pressure on them to stop ignoring our concerns, you could

- ◆ email the nel.npt@ address above, john.robins@westyorkshire.police.uk and mayoral.enquiries@westyorks-ca.gov.uk and please copy us in.
- ◆ go along to a Policing & Community Team (PACT) Meeting, and tell us your thoughts on it.

Consumer Corner

Dissatisfied with a Service? It's all about what is 'reasonable'

A service must be carried out:

1 at a reasonable price. This should always be agreed beforehand and for many services it's a legal requirement. If it wasn't agreed, check the charges of similar service providers in your local area.

2 with reasonable care and skill. Most of us are clueless about plumbing or electricians or car engines etc but we know if something's wrong. Many professions have a 'Code of Practice', usually written by their trade association or an Ombudsman eg there's one for residential estate agents. Find it by Google.

3 within a reasonable time. If there's a contract with a specified time or it is advertised with one, then there is no doubt you have a strong case. If not, again check if there's a code of practice.

Plus the information provided must be true. For example, your builder/hairdresser/cleaner tells you they use only products from Great Britain and that is a main factor for you choosing them, then it is legally binding in the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

The legal remedies are either to carry out the service again. Or to pay a lesser amount to reflect what was actually done (not easy in the example above! Life is rarely straight-forward)

Frustration at Charity's Priority Parking

Wetherby in Support of the Elderly (WISE) office.

Resident Sarah Warrington, informed us that WISE were given 6 reserved spaces late last year. She asked 'How did they get permission, who paid for the work and are they legally enforceable?'. She explains that she lives in a flat overlooking the car park and was 'accosted by an officious looking lady telling her that she could not park there'. She says that she does not see 'why priority should be given to those well connected to the Council'. Sarah added that 'very rarely are all spaces occupied'.

Another resident wrote to us:

"What on earth is going on with this WISE parking? Yesterday we had hairdressers parked in those spaces and one man that stayed all day - he was not connected to WISE (I spoke to him!). I live at the back begging for one space as I'm finding it difficult to park - I have walking problems. I watch women park come back with Primark bags not even shopping in Wetherby, but that's ok too. Let's have it sorted, it's a joke. And most of Wetherby are upset about this. Also, who paid for it?". She added that an unsympathetic Councillor told her to get a Blue Badge and park on the main road.

A business owner, who needs to park close to the town centre, is also shocked by the situation. They say 'many town workers rely on that car park' and that the Station car park is not an option - it's too far away, especially when delivering orders and carrying heavy loads to and from the premises and after a day's work of standing and lifting, most retail workers are 'physically worn out', adding that the Station car park is not considered a viable or safe option in reality. They are resigned to the fact that WISE has been given the green light to needlessly reserve these spaces and that 'nothing will change'.

We visited the car park on 8 occasions to find its usage. From Mon 9 May to Thurs 13 May at about 10.30 am and 2.30pm, the spaces were occupied: 1, 3, 0, 2, 0, 2, 0 & 1 times. So they were empty 80% (9/48) of the occasions we visited and never more than half used.

There are at least two legitimate questions any reasonable person should be allowed to ask in a community newsletter in a free society:

- 1 Why are charity staff prioritised in that car park before other council staff, local business owners and local residents with mobility issues?
- 2 Why are there so many allocated spaces when they are rarely filled?

Rarely used parking spaces

Wetherby on Telly

Great shots of Wetherby for the first time in this new series. Julian Norton performed a delicate operation at his practice on the Sandbeck Estate. It was on Minnie the Guinea Pig for an infection of the uterus. Surprise all round when the cause was found to be a small piece of hay. Minnie was mended and her young owner Imogen was delighted.

The following program only briefly showed Julian performing an operation and trying to tell the 'horse goes into a pub, why the long face?' joke.

Wetherby Film Theatre

A reminder that the cinema is now closed for refurbishment until October. Film-goers were treated to free drinks on the final two screenings as a 'thank you' from the owners.

Have Leeds sabotaged their chances of remaining in the Premier League? The first half of their game at Arsenal was a disaster. Two goals against in the first 10 mins and Ayling gets sent off for an idiotic 2-footed challenge. Goalie Meslier gifted Arsenal their first after miscontrolling a back pass.

20	Norwich	36	21

History repeated itself against Chelsea - early goal conceded and man sent off. They lost 3 - 0 to a rampant Chelsea in front of the Elland Road faithful. With a game in hand, Burnley have Spurs, Villa and Newcastle to play.

Leeds Rhinos got their third win of the campaign against Hull KR at Headingley. Two tries from Prior and Gannon settled it for a 12 - 0 victory. After a two-week break they are off along the M62 to fellow strugglers Salford near the Trafford Centre (disinterested partners can go shopping!)
